Judge Whitney Finds Two Young Criminals Guilty

Honolulu has evidently escaped a relan of terror similar to that which Fan Francisco underwent when the gaspipe thugs, Siemsen and Dabner, r re at large. It would be difficult c find any crimes which are more sin flar than the attempted robbery wasch occurred yesterday morning in ne Japanese saloon on the corner of Peretania avenue and Nuuanu street and the gaspipe crimes which terrorized San Francisco.

The weapons used were not gasipes but were just as deadly and ad they been wielded by more exerienced hands would without doubt ave had the same murderous effect. One was a piece of rubber hose about inches long, heavily loaded at pue ed and with a short wooden handle at the other. The second weapon had been made by sewing a club up in chamois skin and filling one end of Cal the sack so formed with shot. Two Haska Sugar Cospe nore dangerous devices could hardly be contrived.

Two young haoles, C. Houseman and C. E. Miller, were found guilty of assault and battery and were sentenced by Judge Whitney this morning for the robbery mentioned. Houseman, who plead guilty, was given six months in jail and his parter was given a $50 fine.
